

SARAH BEASLEY

95 Saint Alphonsus St., Boston, MA 02120 | 310.561.6758 | sarahmbeasley02@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

Seeking an internship during Summer 2022 to enhance my data science abilities and gain insight into drug development and study protocols.

EDUCATION

Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences (MCPHS University)

Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD)

2020 - 2026

GPA: 3.98

Simmons University

Minor in Biostatistics

2021 – 2022

GPA: 4.00

KEY SKILLS

Familiar with RStudio

Skilled in Microsoft Word and Excel

Familiar with Microsoft PowerPoint

Effective time management

Practiced Aseptic Technique in Microbiology labs

Hard working communicator with good listening skills

Quick learner

Data Analysis

Exposed to New England compounding laws

AWARDS

Dean's List

August 2020 – Current

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Harbor UCLA Medical Center, Carson, CA

Junior Volunteer

2019 -2020

Assisted residents and other medical staff with a variety of tasks such as: paperwork, filing, escorting patients, and making appointments.

MCPHS University

Research Assistant

2021-Current

Collaborated with the professor of regulatory affairs to research the variability between the New England states regarding their pharmacy and compounding laws.

North Torrance High School College and Career Club

Secretary

2018-2020

Collaborated with faculty and the board to plan and organize multiple events for the school, including, but not limited to, College Day and Parent Night.

WORK EXPERIENCE

MCPHS University

Peer Assistant Leader

August 2021 – Current

Collaborate with professors to effectively assist students with the curriculum and convey class materials. Has led session alone in case(s) where instructor was unable to make it to the session.

MCPHS University

Peer Tutor

August 2021 – Current

Prepare and guide students requesting assistance with class material, including reviewing basic chemical principles.

REFERENCES

References will be given upon request.